No. 161.—The following resolution of the Government of India is republished :—

GRANT OF PERSONAL ALLOWANCES TO OFFICERS OF THE INDIAN CIVIL SERVICE AS WELL AS OTHER IMPERIAL SERVICES SO AS TO COMPENSATE THEM FOR LOSS OF SALARY DUE TO INTRODUCTION OF REVISED RATES OF PAY.

HOME DEPARTMENT.

ESTABLISHMENTS.

Simla, the 20th July 1920.

No. 1429.—In introducing the revised rates of pay for the Indian Civil Service it was provided in paragraph 4 of the Home Department Resolution No. 238, dated the 13th February 1920, that personal allowances should, if necessary, be given to individual officers whose pay under the revised rates would in consequence of unusually rapid promotion in the past be less than the substantive pay they were drawing on the date of the introduction of the new rates. It has, however, been brought to notice that in certain individual cases these orders have not sufficed to protect officers from an immediate reduction of emoluments as no provision was made for the retention of acting allowances.

2. In order to meet the latter class of case, the Government of India have decided that officers of the Indian Civil Service should be granted personal allowances, where necessary, so as to bring their remuneration up to the total of pay plus acting allowance which they were drawing on the date of the introduction of the new rates of pay. These personal allowances will be absorbed in subsequent increments of pay in accordance with the principle of Article 31-C.S.R. In the case of an officer who was at the date of the introduction of the new rates officiating in a superior post and who subsequently reverts to an inferior post or who was officiating in a post above or outside the time-scale and subsequently reverts to a post in the time scale, the personal allowance will finally cease to be drawn from the date of such reversion. In all other cases the personal allowance will continue at the rate originally fixed, subject to reduction in accordance with the provisions of Article 31-C.S.R., irrespective of any grade reversion to which the officer might have been liable.

3. The Government of India are not aware that similar difficulties have arisen in regard to members of any of the other Imperial Services whose pay has been revised as a result of the recommendations of the Public Services Commission, but they are pleased to direct that personal allowances shall, where necessary, be given to members of such services on the principles laid down in paragraph 2 of this resolution.

EMIGRATION.

Simla, the 13*th July* 1920.

No. 4085.—The following papers are published for information:—

CONVICTION OF MR. D. M. MANILAL AND THE RECENT INDIAN RIOTS IN FIJI.

Despatch from the Governor of Fiji to the Colonial Office No. 25, dated the 22*nd January* 1920.

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your telegram of the 8th (? December) instant, asking for a report on the circumstances in which a sentence of imprisonment was passed on Mr. D. M. Manilal.

2. The facts of the case are as follows:—Early in 1918 Mr. Manilal applied for the lease of a piece of native land in the village of Nausori, Rewa, on which he desired to erect an office. The Board which reports and advises on applications for leases recommended in this case that the application should not be approved, as the land, which is on the bank of the Rewa river, was "right in the native village, and close to the ferry approach which at any time may require to be deviated owing to flood wash, or to give a better gradient." The Governor in Council concurred in the Board's recommendation, and Mr. Manilal was accordingly informed that his application could not be approved.

3. Early this year Mr. Manilal apparently came to some irregular agreement with the native owners of the land, and, notwithstanding a warning given him by the Acting District Commissioner, Rewa, and that there are other sites in Nausori suitable for an office, commenced to erect a building on it. The Acting Secretary for Native Affairs, with my approval, given on the advice of the Acting Attorney-General, thereupon issued a notice to Mr. Manilal under the provisions of section 3 of Ordinance No. 5 of 1889, warning him to depart forthwith from the native town of Nausori and to cease to occupy any land or building within the said town or its precincts.

4. As Mr. Manilal did not comply with this notice, proceedings were instituted against him, and, on the case being heard before the District Commissioner, Rewa, he was fined 10*l.* or in default one month's imprisonment. The fine was paid.

5. The only protest received in connexion with this matter came from the "Indian Imperial Association of Fiji," of which Mr. Manilal is Chairman. As it was a case in which Mr. Manilal, who is himself a lawyer, deliberately flouted the law, in spite of official warnings, I did not consider that the protest called for any consideration.

6. I enclose copies of a paragraph which appeared in the Fiji Times of 25th September last on this subject and of a letter dated 3rd subsequently sent to the same newspaper by members of the Indian community not belonging to the Association.

ANNEX 1:—Extract from "Fiji Times," 25th September 1919.

Motion of Protest. Favour Mr Manilal.

At a meeting of Suva Indians on the 24th, the following motion was passed.—

"This meeting of the Indian Imperial Association of Fiji views with alarm, deep sorrow and profound indignation the prosecution and conviction of Mr. D. M. Manilal, M.A., LL.B., Bar.-at-law, and the sentence of 10*l.* fine or one month's imprisonment pronounced against him for the crime of building an office on a piece of land for which a grateful native had given him licence to occupy without any tenure, simply because this convenient business site had originally been coveted by a company of which the Government has refused a proper lease to Mr Manilal without any objection that he was not prepared to meet, singling him out from amongst many others, withdrawing the charge against the native himself for the alleged offence. And this Association strongly protests against the conviction knowing that many of the European settlers in this Colony have already acquired large areas of freehold lands from natives by presents of match boxes, matchlocks, and illicit liquor, while our only leader in this Colony and Chairman of this Association is prosecuted to conviction in spite of irregularities in procedure and insufficiency of evidence for putting up a place of business where the local European cliques do not wish an Indian to remain without dependency on themselves, which precaution was entirely uncalled for and unnecessary after he had complied with the Government notice to leave the premises and sold the building to the native himself."

ANNEX 2:—From "Fiji Times," 3rd October 1919.

The Indian Protest.

Sir,—We the undersigned members of the Indian community of Suva, feel that we cannot allow the contributed article in your issue of Monday, 25th September, headed "Indian Meeting Motion of Protest," "Favour Mr. Manilal," to pass without a slight comment.

The so-called Indian Imperial Association is in no way an Association representative of the Indian community of Fiji. It is a quasi secret society. To become a member you must be an intimate friend and approved by one or more of the few gentlemen who run the society.

Mr. Manilal, Mr. George Suchit and Mr. Ram Singh are the leaders, we believe, and the remainder of the society is comprised roughly of some dozen of their personal friends.

The Association is not open to the Indian Community here in general, and unless one shares the views held by the above-named gentlemen, one is not eligible.

The law in respect of a breach of which Mr. Manilal was fined is a law to prevent Fijians exploiting Indians, and Indians in their turn from exploiting each other.

We do not infer that Mr. Manilal had any idea of committing a crime, but if he had been suddenly called to India and had sold his right and title in his building, the purchaser would have found that his right and title was on a very precarious footing, and we understand that the Ordinance was passed by the Government solely to prevent dealings of this kind, and it ill behoves us to grumble at legislation passed to our interest.

We hope that this letter will to some extent, remove from the public any idea that the so-called Indian Imperial Association is in any way representative of the Indian community, consisting, as it does, of a few malcontents and quidnuncs.

We are, etc.,
Non Members.

(5)

Despatch from the Governor of Fiji to the Colonial Office, No. 66, dated the 12th March 1920.

I have the honour to make the following report on the recent strike of Indian labourers in Fiji and the consequent disturbances at Suva and other centres.

2. The first indication of trouble was a strike of the Indian employees of the Public Works Department on 15th January; on 19th January the employees of the Municipal Council followed suit and the strike became fairly general in Suva. No definite demands were put forward, but there was talk of a general demand for 5*s.* per diem pay. On 21st January a strike began on a small scale in the Rewa district and minor cases of intimidation were reported both there and at Suva. At this stage it was thought advisable to enrol 24 European constables at Suva, in case they should be required. In the course of the next three days the strike became general in the Rewa district and was reported to be spreading to the up-river centres, Viria and Vunidawa.

3. Up to this point there was no disorder and no reason to anticipate any. There was no evidence of hostility against the Government. Meetings were held among the Indians, but the speakers generally counselled respect for law and order and the observance of constitutional methods. The initial grievances felt were apparently against the merchants, whose high prices were regarded as being the cause of the increased cost of living.

4. On the afternoon of 27th January news was received by telephone of a threatening demonstration at Nausori on the Rewa river, where the Colonial Sugar Refining Company have one of their principal mills. The trouble began with the arrest of certain Indians for intimidating others desiring to return to work. The arrested men were rescued from the Police by a crowd, which rapidly increased to the number of 1,000 or more, and attempted to rush the police station at Nadurulouloun in order to attack the witnesses. Late in the afternoon Captain R. Kane, M.C., the District Commissioner reported that there was every prospect of a riot, and in response to his request for assistance I authorized the despatch of 12 native constables from Suva, followed later by 20 Europeans and a machine-gun section of the Defence Force. The arrival of these reinforcements had a tranquillising effect, and the night passed without further incident. On this occasion and in the subsequent emergencies at Rewa, the situation was resolutely and judiciously handled by Captain Kane.

5. On 26th January the elected members of the Legislative Council resident at Suva called upon me and asked what steps the Government were taking to deal with the situation. They represented that the public were seriously alarmed, that the attitude of the Indians was believed to be largely racial, and that there were reports of a large and probably hostile demonstration at Suva being planned for 2nd February. I informed them fully of the steps already taken and of those which it was proposed to take. On the same day I received a telegram from the Mayor of Levuka reporting that all the Indian labourers employed on the municipal and harbour works there had struck, but eventually these men went back to work and there was no trouble at Levuka. There was still no evidence of any intention on the part of the strikers to formulate their demands, though it was reported about this time that they were selecting delegates to represent their grievances to me.

6. On the evening of the 29th, a mob of about 200 Indians, armed with sticks, gathered in Toorak (the Indian location at Suva) with the object of attacking the manager of one of the hotels (Paterson by name), whom they accused of having flogged an Indian servant and of having used insulting language to Indians passing his hotel. The mob was dispersed by the constabulary, but not without a baton charge. Other mobs assembled at Tamavua (a village on the outskirts of Suva) with the same object, but were met by the Inspector-General of Constabulary, who persuaded them to go home and told them that their proper course was to seek redress in the magistrate's court instead of taking the law into their own hands.

7. Meanwhile a request had been made to me, through the Agent-General of Immigration, that I would receive a deputation of Indian workers and hear their grievances. I at once consented to receive the deputation, which waited upon me on 30th January. The deputation consisted of about 15 leading Indians and several women, and was headed by a Mrs. Manilal, the wife of D. M. Manilal a local Indian lawyer who was already under suspicion, and is now regarded beyond all reasonable doubt as being the prime mover in the agitation. Manilal himself was not present. A long statement of grievances was read to me representing the increased price of foodstuffs and other necessaries and the inadequacy of the prevailing rates of wages, and concluding with the request that the Government should pay its labourers 5s. a day, and appoint a Commission to consider the question of controlling prices after work has been resumed. I had already decided, in consultation with my advisers, that no increase should be promised until work was resumed; but, after asking the deputation a number of questions and discussing the subject-matter of their petition, I informed them that I was prepared to appoint a Commission, and that I had already obtained the consent of the Chief Justice to act as Chairman. I added that if after considering the findings of the Commission the Government decided to give an increase of wages to its employees, the increase would have effect from the date on which they resumed work—an offer which I hoped might induce the strikers to resume work quietly.

8. I proceeded immediately with the appointment of the Commission, and on the following day I published the names of the members, and the terms of reference, which were to inquire and report as to—

(a) the present cost of living as compared with the cost in former years;

(b) the present rates of salaries and wages as compared with the rates prevailing in former years;

(c) whether at the present cost of necessaries the salaries or wages earned by different classes of the community afford a reasonable means of livelihood;

(d) if not, what measures the Government should take with a view to adjusting any disproportion between the cost of necessaries and the prevailing rates of salaries or wages.

In response to a request made to me by the deputation, provision was inserted enabling the Commission to include as an additional member a representative of the Indian wage-earning class in any particular district, a concession of which the Indians promptly availed themselves by nominating as their representative Mr. S. S. Chowla, a clerk in the Law Department. News of the appointment of the Commission was quickly circulated among the Indians at Suva and Rewa, apparently with good effect, as they spent much time during the following days in discussing the means of appointing delegates and presenting evidence.

9. Meanwhile reports were being received of further cases of intimidation and of preparations for the large demonstration which was expected on the following Monday, 2nd February. There was nothing to indicate what form this demonstration was likely to take, and no actual reason to anticipate that it would be otherwise than pacific, but the possibility of a concentration of five or six thousand Indian strikers at Suva was a little disturbing in view of the small forces at the Government's disposal, and there was, not unnaturally, a certain amount of anxiety on the part of the public. In the circumstances it was thought advisable to be prepared for any contingency. Accordingly a rough scheme of defence was improvised, by which all available forces were to stand to at day light on the Monday morning. On Sunday morning I met the leading citizens of Suva at the Defence Force Club and addressed them informally on the situation. I said that, although the Government had thought it wise to make all possible preparations in case of trouble on the following day, there was nothing in the reports received inconsistent with a perfectly peaceable intention on the part of the strikers; and that, even if a demonstration took place, it need not necessarily be accompanied by any disturbance. At the same time I observed that in times like these men with grievances, whether white or coloured, were prone to excitement, and that Europeans might hear things said by Indians which would try their patience severely; but I deprecated interference with any crowds so long as there was no actual violence or threat of damage to life or property.

10. Sunday, the 1st of February, passed off quietly. A large meeting of Indians was held at Rewa, but the meeting was entirely peaceable and was largely occupied with discussion as to the representation of grievances before the Commission, the appointment of which had apparently given satisfaction. On the following day, 2nd February, everything was in readiness for the expected demonstration at Suva, but nothing happened beyond a meeting of Indians in one of the suburbs. On the following day, however, I received a disquieting report of the attitude of the Indians at Rewa. Gatherings of Indians at outlying points in the Rewa district were reported, the intention undoubtedly being to concentrate on Nausori. The object of the concentration was clearly hostile, and there was much talk of looting stores and damaging property. Visits paid by Rewa Indians to Suva and the evidence which they saw of the Government's preparedness there no doubt had the effect of checking for the moment the plans of the strikers at Nausori. Nevertheless the time had clearly come for the Government to be in readiness for grave developments. Accordingly, I decided to mobilise the Defence Force and to send two sections to Nausori, the remainder being concentrated in barracks at Suva. At the same time I gave orders that the crossing of the Rewa river by Indians in considerable numbers in either direction was to be stopped. Trouble of a more or less serious nature seemed inevitable and preparations were hurried forward. Interference by Indians with the telephone wires between Nausori and the up-river centres was reported. Late in the evening a heavy thunderstorm burst over Suva, and the lightning, which was the most vivid I have ever seen, made telephone conversation difficult and hampered the work of preparation. At 7 p.m., a great blaze was observed on the sea front. At first it was thought that the Government workshops were on fire, but afterwards it was found that a cutter in the harbour, loaded with benzine, had been struck by lightning. The incident provided an exciting close to an eventful day.

11. At this stage considerable activity among Indian women became noticeable, the most prominent among them being Mrs. Manilal, who addressed meetings of Indians, exhorting them not to go back to work and to prevent all their countrymen from doing so. Mrs Manilal, accompanied by a crowd of women, attempted to force an Indian employee at one of the motor garages to leave his work, but the police appeared on the scene and the women went home. Bands of women of the lowest class were organized to intimidate workers with obscene language and filthy practices.

12. On 5th February the Commission held its first sittings, and I issued a Proclamation calling upon the strikers to resume work and explaining the situation to the Indians. In the course of the week I had been verbally approached through the Agent-General of Immigration with the suggestion that, on the following Sunday, 8th February, I should go out to Nausori unofficially, accompanied only by the Agent-General of Immigration and the Inspector-General of Constabulary, and attend a meeting of the strikers at which no other European should be allowed to be present. The Agent-General very properly declined to submit any such request to me unless it were made in writing, which was not done. The request was illustrative of the dictatorial attitude now being assumed by the strike leaders. The proposal that the Governor should make a journey of 14 miles, in order to parley in a clandestine fashion with strikers, was one which, I need hardly say, I should not have been prepared to entertain for a moment, and I regret that the leaders did not put forward their request in writing and so afford me an opportunity of telling them what I thought of the suggestion. Later on, I was shown the draft of an address which had been prepared to be presented to me at the proposed meeting. It had very little to do with the stated grievances, namely, the cost of living and the rate of wages, and consisted of a long resume of political complaints and aspirations. It was in fact a clear proof that, the economic grievances, on which the leaders had induced the labourers to strike, had been relegated to the background, and that the movement had been converted into a political agitation. I may mention here that, at one of the previous meetings at Suva above referred to, a resolution was solemnly passed ordaining that, while all other Indian domestic servants were to be called out under threats of beating, those in the employ of the Governor, the Chief Justice and the Colonial Secretary might be specially exempted.

13. On 7th February there was an attempt at arson on the premises of the Public Works Department at Suva, which was fortunately discovered in time to prevent a serious conflagration.

14. I have not so far referred to Navua, an important sugar centre on the south coast where the Vancouver-Fiji Sugar Company have a large mill. The Indian labourers here also, to the number of two or three thousand, went on strike; but there was no disorder, and the situation was well handled by the District Commissioner, Mr. A. H. Roberts, with the aid of the local police and 50 Fijian special constables. There were, nevertheless, moments of anxiety for the safety of residents and property at Navua, and for several days an armed party was held in readiness to proceed there by launch from Suva at half an hour's notice.

15. Hitherto no serious developments had been reported from the up-river centres beyond Rewa, but on the afternoon of Sunday the 8th of February disturbing news was received from the District Commissioner at Vunidawa, who reported that all the Indian labourers had struck, that intimidation was rife, and that on the previous day bloodshed had been narrowly averted, one of the European planters living with his wife and two children on an isolated estate having been attacked by Indians. All the planters had been brought into the Government station, but they had no means of defence. After consultation with the District Commissioner by telephone, I authorized him to enrol local Fijians as special constables, and told him to defend the station as best he could pending the arrival of reinforcements. These, to the number of 12 half-caste and Fijian members of the Defence Force under a European officer, were despatched at once, proceeding part of the way by motor-car and the rest by river.

16. The first serious collision occurred at Suva on the afternoon of the 11th February. Shortly after 2 p.m., a report reached the Inspector-General of Constabulary to the effect that some 60 or 70 Indians, armed with sticks, were coming into Suva from one of the suburbs. The Inspector-General immediately proceeded in his car to the outskirts of the town, accompanied by an Inspector and a small body of constables. The police were drawn across the road and held up the mob. When asked what they intended to do, the Indians said that Mrs. Manilal had been arrested, and that they intended to go to the prison (apparently with the object of attempting to release her). The Inspector-General told them that they could not be allowed to pass. This was resented, and the women persisted in passing. The Inspector-General, having insufficient men to deal with the rest of the crowd, and being unwilling to precipitate trouble, decided that it would be unwise to interfere with the women; but he took away the loaded and other sticks from the men that had them, and informed the crowd that the report of Mrs. Manilal's arrest was untrue. As they were disinclined to believe, Colonel Golding offered to take their leader into Suva in his car, in order that he might see for himself that Mrs. Manilal was in her house, provided that the crowd remained where they were. This was done, and on Colonel Golding's return the crowd were satisfied, and slowly dispersed. On his way back to Suva the Inspector-General met another crowd of Indians, armed with sticks, coming from a different direction. He stopped them, and asked them where they were going, and what they intended to do. They replied that white men were being beaten, and that they were going to see what the trouble was. Colonel Golding told them that this was not true, and turned them back. Shortly after his return to the police station the Inspector-General received information that there was likely to be trouble at Toorak, where Indians were reported to be gathering with the intention of a hostile attack upon loyal Indians returning from work. He thereupon ordered Inspector Swinbourne to take some special constables to Toorak, and patrol the neighbourhood. Inspector Swinbourne subsequently reported as follows:—

"Approaching Toorak, a riot was found to be in progress, and it appears that Special Constable Reay, whilst endeavouring to arrest an Indian woman named Rahiman, was set upon and beaten by Indian men and women, as were the Fijian constables and an elderly European gentleman named Pilkington, who had gone to his assistance. Reay and the police were forced to retire and were pursued down Toorak road by a howling mob of some 300 Indians, who hurled sticks and stones after them and generally terrorising the whole neighbourhood. With the individual arrival of 'Specials' and Sub-Inspector Lacchinelli, the Indians were driven off the Rewa road into a gully near the compound, where the Indian women were originally seen in the morning by the constabulary officers. Three Special Constables Caldwell, Savage and James Brown (police van driver) were severely beaten and wounded and the police driven back to Toorak road. The Magistrate was asked to attend by Inspector Swinbourne. The Chief Police Magistrate and a party of soldiers under Major Knox soon afterwards arrived on the scene."

The Inspector-General himself arrived upon the scene about the same time as the Military. The Indians who had been participating in the riot ran into some houses in the neighbourhood. Colonel Golding ordered these houses to be surrounded and caused all found inside to be disarmed and collected in one spot. A party of 175 men and 14 women were marched down to the police station under escort. Meanwhile, Colonel Golding despatched some specials, under command of Inspector Swinbourne, to deal with a crowd of Indians armed with sticks who had been reported as coming into Suva from another quarter. This crowd was intercepted and forced to retire to the outskirts of the town.

17. Late in the evening I visited the police station and congratulated the police and special constables on the way in which they had handled a very difficult and dangerous situation. I also visited the hospital, where I saw Mr. W. Savage and Mr. C. Caldwell, Special Constables. They were both very badly injured and almost unconscious, Mr. Savage's head and face being a mass of bruises, while Mr. Caldwell had an arm and several ribs broken. I also saw Mr. Pilkington, a gentleman over 70 years of age, who had very pluckily gone to the assistance of the police and had had an arm broken.

18. At an early stage of the trouble it had become apparent to me that naval or military assistance, or both, from outside the Colony would be required. Even if a sufficient force could have been organized locally, it was clear that the Indians would never believe in its sufficiency, and the inevitable result of a collision between several thousands of Indians and a force which they believed they could overpower, although in the end the armed force would probably have prevailed, would have been a resort to rifle and machine gun fire involving serious bloodshed and damage to property. In the circumstances I decided to ask the Government of Australia to send a warship, and at the same time, in case a vessel should not be available from Australia or should not arrive in time, to ask the New Zealand Government for assistance also. Both requests were generously and promptly complied with, and I desire to record the deep appreciation of the Government and people of this Colony of the action of the Commonwealth and the Dominion Authorities. The assistance from New Zealand, which arrived first, consisted of a detachment of 60 officers and men of the New Zealand Defence Forces with Lewis gun sections. These arrived on the morning of 12th February on board the New Zealand Government vessel Tutanekai. Being uncertain at what point this force might be first required, I had requested the Tutanekai to proceed to Levuka and there to await developments. On the night, however, of 12th February, in view of the serious affray in Suva and the possibility of further trouble here, I requested the Tutanekai by wireless to come direct to Suva. The arrival of the force was most opportune. A portion of the force was immediately called upon to support the police in preventing the incursion of crowds into Suva and generally in restoring order in the town and neighbourhood, while late in the same day a section was despatched by launch up the Rewa river in order to reinforce the Fijian police and Defence Force already stationed at Nausori, who had had to deal during the day with serious disturbances amounting to riot.

13. The following is a detailed account by Inspector A. Pictor, of the Fiji Constabulary, on the riot at Nausori on 12th February:—

"On account of trouble occurring at Suva on the 11th instant in the afternoon, the special constables who had already been sworn in were mobilized, rifles issued and Nausori picketed with posts of regular and special constabulary that night. No disturbance occurred, however, and nothing out of the ordinary until 11-20 p.m. it was found that the telephone wires to Suva had been cut. A special constable motor cyclist and linesman were sent out to locate the break, while despatch runners (Fijian) were sent to Suva at the same time. The cut was located and reported to Suva. On Thursday, the 12th instant, crowds were reported as coming in at an early hour from Naralevu, Vuci, Waimbokasi, etc., with sticks, knives, etc., and concentrating at Vunimoni. These people did not seem to know why they had been summoned, and a large number dispersed when called upon to do so. I ordered all sticks to be thrown away, and this was carried out. At 10-30 p.m. however, a crowd of about 300 men were reported as coming from Suva direction towards Davuilevu. The bridges from Nasinu to Nausori had previously been reported as broken, and this crowd were the perpetrators. I at once repaired to Davuilevu by launch with a detachment of Fijian constables, followed later by a launch load of specials (with rifles). A guard of six specials was already posted at Davuilevu Hotel, and on arrival I found the crowd had passed the hotel and had proceeded to the pontoon landing. I followed them up and asked their intentions. They stated that they were going to Nausori and that nothing would stop them. The pontoon having previously been withdrawn to the Nausori side, they were unable to proceed further, and the Fijian constables were in their rear. I called upon them to throw down their sticks and other arms therefore, which about 50 per cent did; the remainder, however, escaped up the road towards Suva again. They were followed up and when opposite the hotel the 'specials' previously referred to reinforced the Fijians. The crowd somehow obtained other sticks and iron palings, however, and their numbers were momentarily being swelled with reinforcements brought over in Evinrude boats from the Nausori side. As the temper of the crowd was ugly I formed square and telephoned Nausori to have a patrol sent on to the river to cut communication between the Nausori and Davuilevu side to prevent further reinforcements, and requested Captain Kane, the District Commissioner, to come over as I anticipated the necessity of reading the Riot Act. At the same time I sent for certain Indian leaders I could more or less trust and try to disperse the crowd by peaceable means. This latter move was successful, and the Nausori men who had crossed in small boats expressed their desire to return to their own side peaceably. This was consented to, and the pontoon sent for, nobody, however, was to be allowed to land at Nausori with a stick. I telephoned to Captain Faddy, Officer Commanding Defence Force, who had a guard on the Nausori side of the pontoon-way, to request him to have this order enforced, and to this he agreed. Left by the Nausori men, the Nasinu crowd rapidly dispersed, the majority throwing away their sticks. The Constabulary then returned to the Nausori side at 2 p.m. The constabulary had scarcely landed at the Company's wharf, Nausori, when whistles were heard from the pontoon bridge. Collecting the Fijian constables who had fallen in at the first alarm, I proceeded to the spot, accompanied by Sub-Inspector Tucker. On arrival at the bridge the Defence Force guard was found to be in difficulties, as an angry crowd, armed with sticks, were on the bridge, and actually at grips with several members. It appears the trouble arose through the pontoon guard taking away sticks from the second pontoon load of people from the Davuilevu side as requested. It was obviously a case for swift measures, and so the Fijians were formed up in front of the Defence Force guard, across the bridge which was then held by a line of Fijian constables with fixed bayonets. At sight of these the crowd fell back to the far end of the bridge while the Fijians were subjected to a lively fusilade of stones. I am glad to be able to state that no trained troops could have stood this more steadily than the Fijians, whose behaviour throughout has been exemplary. The special constabulary now came up behind the Fijians, but seeing bodies of the crowd moving back at a run towards Vuci, I sent the specials back to take up a position blocking the Vuci road, which enters Nausori opposite Marks' store at right angles to the river, while others were to hold the Naduruloulou road, to prevent people from the Nausori cocoa lines taking us in reverse. Both these forces came face to face with armed crowds, but the sight of the rifles and the coolness of the N.C.O.'s was sufficient to meet the situation. Captain Kane now arrived at the bridge and having spoken to the crowd without effect, read the Riot Act. The crowd, under the influence of certain of their leaders who were not inclined to violence, retired slightly and gradually dispersed without any firing taking place. There were no further incidents this day. On this date all European women and children were concentrated at Nausori, arrangements having previously been made."

20. The affair at Nausori on 12th February was the most serious of any that have occurred. Although, however, the most serious, it was not the last, for on the following day the police came into collision with a mob of several hundreds of Indians who had been wrecking bridges and telephone wires on the road between Suva and Rewa. I cannot describe this incident better than in the words of the Inspector-General of Constabulary, whose report reads as follows:—

"On Friday the 13th instant at about 3 o'clock I received information that Major Knox with some mounted men and his Lewis gun section were holding up at the Samabula bridge a crowd of between 200 and 300 Indians who were demanding to be allowed to come into Suva. Permission to do so had been refused, and Mr. Pennefather, Chief Police Magistrate, had proceeded to the scene and called upon the Indians to disperse. The Indians refused and remained in the vicinity of the bridge. I proceeded to the scene with Inspector Swinbourne, Sub-Inspector Lucchinelli and a party of 25 European special constables and Fijian Constabulary. I conferred with Mr. Pennefather, who told me of the situation, whereupon I told Major Knox, officer in charge of the Defence Force party, that I was going to advance on the mob and asked him to follow up my party with his mounted men in case I should require their assistance. I then crossed the bridge with the constabulary and hustled the mob of Indians, taking care not to inflict damage on those who did not resist. The main body of Indians ran up the road a distance of about 400 or 500 yards, and in the vicinity of an Indian dwelling house a number picked up poles and bludgeons and offered us serious resistance by flinging rocks, stones and sticks at us and striking at us with their weapons. One tall Indian I noticed in particular came for me with a pole, but was prevented reaching me by one of the Corporals of Constabulary, who was himself stunned by a staggering blow. At this moment I heard revolver and pistol shots being fired behind me, but I am unable to say who fired them. I saw Sub-Inspector Lucchinelli discharge his revolver twice at the Indian who attacked me, but the shots did not take effect, as I saw the Indian making off when I had ordered constables to take him in flank. Had not fire been opened on the crowd of Indians, who vastly outnumbered us, I do not hesitate to say that there would have been serious loss of life on our side. I remained on the spot half-an-hour after the action and collected the wounded Indians and constables and had them conveyed to Suva in the police van for treatment at the hospital. Three Indians were suffering from gunshot wounds (one of whom has since died) and several others from contusions on the head and body."

A magisterial enquiry was subsequently held on the death of the Indian who was killed, and the Magistrate's finding was that the case was one of justifiable homicide. This was the only life lost, but the few shots that were fired and the death of the Indian may have been the means of saving greater loss of life. There is no doubt that the Indians had been led to believe by agitators that firearms would under no circumstances be resorted to by the Government forces—a belief which greatly increased the difficulties of the police in effecting peaceable dispersals. I cannot speak too highly of the restraint and forbearance shown both by the European and by the Fijian members of the constabulary and the Defence Force in the three affrays at Toorak, Nausori, and the Samabula Bridge.

21. The pacification of the district between Suva and Rewa presented no little difficulty. On each side of the road between the two centres there are scattered settlements of Indians of a miscellaneous class, of whom only a few were genuine strikers, and who, for the most part, were merely out for trouble and ready to join forces with any crowd that might collect either at Suva or at Rewa. After the Samabula affair it was necessary to patrol the Rewa road. At the same time it was desirable to give these people every chance of coming to an understanding with the Government. Accordingly, with my consent, Mr. T. E. Fell, C.M.G., the Colonial Secretary, went out by motor-car on 15th February in order to get into touch with the Indians in this neighbourhood and to hear what they had to say. The attitude of the Indians after the events of the 13th was very uncertain, and, although Mr. Fell was accompanied by two motor cyclists and arrangements had been made for relief in case of any mishap, the journey was by no means unattended by risk. After at first displaying considerable mistrust, about 50 Indians collected and were addressed by Mr. Fell, who explained the position to them from the point of view of the Government assuring them that if they were law-abiding and peaceful the Government was ready to help them, but warning them that if they persisted in opposing the Government and damaging property it would be their own fault if they found themselves in trouble. Having eventually received assurances from the Indians that they would do no more damage to property or interfere with men guarding the roads and that they would obey the law and not assemble in crowds without permission, Mr. Fell gave permits to a few Indian storekeepers to come into Suva to make necessary purchases, and told them that, if their conduct warranted it, a larger number would be allowed to come into the town later. The meeting was not regarded by Mr. Fell as entirely satisfactory, but it clearly pointed to the advisability of appointing a civilian official to act as intermediary between the Government and the Indians and to take note of any complaints against patrols operating in this area. I therefore appointed Mr. C. E. de F. Pennefather (Magistrate, Suva) as Political Officer for this purpose. During the ensuing 10 days Mr. Pennefather paid frequent visits to the district and received numerous minor complaints, which were all investigated and, as far as possible, adjusted. I believe that this appointment had a good effect.

22. The difficulty of restoring order in Suva was increased by the presence of bands of young Indian hooligans, who together with the women, were chiefly responsible for the intimidation of loyal Indians and for preventing them returning to work. At a meeting of "Loyal Indians, British subjects" a resolution was passed thanking me for having appointed the Commission, expressing a desire to return to work forthwith, and asking for protection against interference. The only effective way of ensuring protection for the loyal element and of preventing further riotous behaviour by these hooligans (or "larrikins," as Mr. Budri Maharaj described them in conversation with me) was to prescribe an area within which movements and gatherings of Indians should be restricted and to which only those should be admitted who were engaged in bona fide business or employment. On 12th February the Legislative Council passed an Ordinance enabling the Governor in Council to take certain measures for the public safety in the event of civil commotion, and under this Ordinance a simple but effective system of permits was instituted, and an area, including the greater part of the town of Suva, was prescribed with the above objects. The system has worked satisfactorily, and, while it has had a good disciplinary effect on the disorderly element, has involved the least possible irksomeness to the law-abiding Indian population. The policy will be to relax it gradually, and already certain of the restrictions at first imposed have been removed.

23. His Majesty's Australian Sloop Marguerite arrived at Suva on 14th February and after remaining for a day, paid visit to the north-western coast of Vitilevu. I have reason to believe that the appearance of this vessel had an excellent effect, and I greatly regret that it has only been possible for her to remain in these waters for one month. The Government forces were further augmented by the arrival, on 16th February, of 200 natives from Lau, whom Mr. G. M. Hennings, a leading resident in the Lau Group, had volunteered to recruit and who formed a most useful auxiliary to the police in patrolling roads and protecting bridges. I may here say that the attitude, both of the local Fijians and of those who were recruited in Lau, Rewa, Navua and elsewhere to assist the Police, has been most gratifying. They have shown a keen desire to help the Government, and there have been very few complaints of vexatious behaviour towards the Indians with whom they have been brought in contact.

24. On 15th February, the Hon'ble Budri Maharaj, M.L.C., arrived at Suva and proceeded to Nausori, where he addressed a meeting of Indians, warned them against the danger into which they were being led by agitators, and strongly advised them to return to work. This advice, following upon the prompt measures taken by the Government to deal with the rioters, apparently had a good effect. On the following day, 16th February, the strike ended as suddenly as it had begun, and the Indians at Rewa, Suva and Navua were all reported to be returning to work.

25. I am glad to say that, although efforts were undoubtedly made by the agitators to extend the strike to the principal sugar centres in the north-western districts, there has been no trouble among the large Indian population on that side of the main island. It was persistently rumoured that large bodies of Indians from the north coast were arranging to march across country to join in a concentration at Suva, but nothing of the sort happened. The Indians residing in Suva, Nausori, Navua and on the south coast generally are of a different and, generally speaking, of an inferior class to those belonging to the north-western districts. There has always been a tendency for malcontents and bad characters to gravitate towards the south coast centres. Neither is there any identity of interests between Indians on the Suva side and those elsewhere. The latter include a considerable element of substantial cane-growers who are themselves employers of labour, and who have a stake in the country. If the strike had extended to the north-western districts, it would probably have been from different causes (e.g., dissatisfaction with the terms offered by the Colonial Sugar Refining Company as regards the price of cane and the rate of wages). While the Government has been by no means free from anxiety concerning possible developments in the north-western districts, this anxiety was in a large measure relieved by an announcement which the Colonial Sugar Refining Company made to the Indian cane-growers at Lautoka and other centres on 4th February. This was briefly to the effect that an additional bonus of 2*s.* 6*d.* per ton would be paid to growers for their cane, together with a special grant of 20*s.* per acre on all land under proper cultivation. Although this concession applies to the present year only and still leaves growers in uncertainty as regards the treatment for future years, and although I have not yet heard that the effect has been definitely accepted, there is reason to hope that any immediate likelihood of a general cessation of work has been averted At the same time it is to be regretted that the concession was not made earlier. If it had been, it is possible that the strike at Nausori, which has been the chief cause of anxiety and expense to the Government, might have been avoided.

26. In conclusion, I should like to place on record the valuable services rendered by Mr. T. E Fell, C.M.G., Colonial Secretary, Mr. P. R. Backhouse, Agent-General of Immigration, Colonel G. J. L. Golding, Inspector-General of Constabulary, and Lieut.-Col. P S Hall, D.S.O., Commandant of the Defence Force. I also desire to bring to Your Lordship's notice the assistance given to the police authorities by the Hon'ble H. M. Scott, K.C , and the Hon'ble R. Crompton, C.B E., in the very arduous task of collecting evidence and preparing charges in connexion with the prosecution of the rioters. There are many others, both Civil Servants and members of the public, who have rendered valuable assistance, and I propose to submit their names to Your Lordship in a later despatch.

Papers regarding the deportation of Mr. Manilal from Fiji will be published on their receipt from the India Office.

The Commissioners shall forthwith forward their report to the Governor who, on receipt thereof, shall issue orders in accordance with the report and publish the report in the Gazette, and the orders of the Governor shall be final.

With a view to improve the education of Panchamas in this Presidency, sixteen scholarships and an equal number of fee-remissions will be awarded every year for Panchamas studying in secondary schools in this Presidency. The scholarships may be held in conjunction with fee-remissions. The scholarships will be of the same value as those that are now awarded under the Government Scholarships notification, 1920-21, to pupils in secondary schools (viz., Rs. 3 per mensem in forms I to III and Rs. 6 per mensem in forms IV to VI) and will be held under similar conditions. Of these sixteen scholarships and sixteen fee-remissions, one scholarship and one fee-remission will be placed at the disposal of each of the Inspectors of Schools, First, Second, Third, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth and Thirteenth Circles, and two scholarships and two fee remissions at the disposal of each of the Inspectors of the Fourth, Seventh and Ninth Circles for award at their discretion, subject to the conditions laid down in the Government Scholarship notification of 1920-21.

2. In addition to the above, thirty special scholarships will be awarded annually to Panchama pupils studying in the VI standard of higher elementary schools in this Presidency and will be renewed in the VII and VIII standards on the pupils' promotion.

They will be of the same value as the scholarships that are now awarded under the Government Scholarship notification, 1920-21, to pupils in higher elementary schools (viz., Rs. 2, 2½ and 3 in the VI, VII and VIII standards, respectively), and will be held under similar conditions. Of these thirty scholarships, six will be placed at the disposal of the Inspector of Schools, Seventh Circle, four at the disposal of the Inspector of Schools, Thirteenth Circle, three at the disposal of the Inspector of Schools, Ninth Circle, two at the disposal of each of the Inspectors of Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, Tenth Circles and one at the disposal of each of the Inspectors of First, Eleventh and Twelfth Circles for award at their discretion, subject to the conditions laid down in the Government Scholarship notification of 1920–21.

Applications for any of the above scholarships should be made in the form already prescribed therefor and submitted to the Inspector of Schools.

[These scholarships may be held by boys belonging to the aboriginal and criminal classes.]

The Inspectors of Schools are requested to submit a report to the Director as to whether the number of scholarships and fee remissions allotted to their circles is too large if the award is restricted to really capable and deserving boys and also as to cases where the number is not sufficient.

N.B.—Should the number of candidates who have applied to be examined at any one of the above centres fall short of thirty, the candidates that selected that centre must be prepared to proceed, at their own expense, to the nearest centre where the examination may be held. Timely notice will be given to the candidates concerned.

3. No notice will be taken of the application of any candidate who selects a centre which is not in the above list, and no candidate will be allowed to name more than one centre. No candidate will on any account be allowed to change the place of examination entered in his application, which must invariably be the place where he is employed or ordinarily resides, or should it not be a centre, the place nearest to it where the examination is held. A candidate appearing for examination at a centre other than the one mentioned by him in his application must be prepared to have his examination annulled.

4. In addition to the above centres, the Commissioner will be prepared to arrange for the holding of the Written examination in any of the subjects mentioned, at any other place, if he is satisfied that not fewer than thirty candidates are likely to offer themselves for examination, and it is advisable to make such place a centre. Applications for the inclusion of such place or places in the list of centres should be made to the Commissioner through the local educational or other authorities concerned before the 15th August. Ordinarily, however, only one place will be constituted a centre for each district.

5. The oral and practical examinations in such subjects as require them will be held at those places only where satisfactory arrangements can be made for the conduct of such examinations.

N.B.—To guard against disappointment in the case of such of the Oral and Practical examinations as may be held before the written examination, candidates are recommended to refer to Part I B of the Fort St. George Gazette from time to time.

6. Candidates whose examinations, either written or oral and practical, cannot be arranged for at any place must, at their own expense, proceed to Madras or to the nearest centre where they are held in the subjects in which they appear.

7. Heads of institutions are requested to see, before the certificate at the foot of the application is signed by them, that their institution has been recognized by competent authority as fitted to impart instruction in the Technical subjects and for the grades to them brought up by their pupils.

N.B.—Heads of institutions recognized for General Education only should not sign the certificate at the foot of the application form filled in by any of their pupils coming up for any of the Technical examinations.

8. All pupils coming up from the same institution must select the same centre, and the applications of all of them should be forwarded together (along with a covering letter stating the number of applications) by the head of that institution, as applications of any private candidates being enclosed with these applications.

9. Each candidate must, wherever the syllabus requires it, submit, before the 31st August, the necessary drawings, plans, surveys, field books, estimates, or other 'certified works.' Each of the drawings, etc., submitted must have entered on it the name of the candidate, the subject and grade of examination for which he appears and the centre at which he appears, and must be certified to be his own unaided work by the head of the institution or office to which he belongs, by an officer of the Public Works Department not below the rank of Supervisor, by a District Board Engineer, by the Engineer of the Corporation of Madras, or by an Engineer of any railway company.

Candidates are specially warned that no certified works will be valued by examiners unless the certificate of authorship is quite satisfactory and specifies clearly the period of time occupied in the execution of each work and unless the examiners are satisfied as to the identity and qualifications of the persons granting the certificates. Further, if any suspicion attaches to any certified works submitted by pupils from Technical schools, the Commissioner will be compelled to recommend to the authority concerned the withdrawal of the departmental privileges enjoyed by the schools. Private candidates, whose certified works are in any way suspected by the examiners, will be liable to have their examination invalidated and also to be debarred from appearing for any of the examinations under the control of the Commissioner for such term of years as the Commissioner may think fit.

It must be particularly noted that the drawings, etc., of each candidate should be submitted in a separate roll for each subject and for each grade (i.e., the drawings, etc., for number of subjects should not be rolled up together), and that the drawings, etc., of a number of candidates should not be sent in one and the same roll. Also, on the outside of each roll for each subject, each candidate should enter the following particulars in ink:—

(1) Name of candidate,	(4) Grade, and
(2) Place of examination,	(5) Total number of drawings in each roll.
(3) Subject,

* For Free-hand Outline Drawing (Elementary and Intermediate grades), Design (Elementary grade), Geometrical Drawing (Elementary and Intermediate grades) and Painting (Elementary grade).

As the application has to be kept in the office and as the drawings, etc., have to be forwarded to the examiners, the application itself should be sent in a separate cover and not rolled up with the drawings, etc.

A candidate who failed, or having applied, did not appear, at a previous examination, must submit fresh drawings, etc. The drawings, etc., submitted will on no account be returned.

10. Candidates must send in their applications made out in English on printed forms so that they reach the Commissioner's office on or before the 31st August, after which date no application will be received. Only one form of application should be used by each candidate, although he may bring up several subjects and come up for different grades.

11. Candidates in the mofussil should obtain the required application forms from the treasury of the taluk in which they are resident or of the district to which they belong. Candidates in the Native States of Mysore, Hyderabad, Travancore and Cochin should obtain them from the Hon'ble the Resident's Treasury. Candidates who are residents of Madras should apply for application forms at the office of the Commissioner for Government Examinations, Old College, Nungambakam, and not to the Collector of Madras.

N.B.—No notice will be taken of any application from candidates in the mofussil requesting to be supplied with application forms from this office.

12. The following is the scale of fees to be paid by candidates for admission to the examinations :—

	Elementary.	Intermediate.	Advanced
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
For each subject	3	5	10

N.B.—No candidate will be permitted to come up for examination in more than one grade in the same subject at the same time.

13. The prescribed fee must be paid in every case into a Government treasury or, if at Madras, into the Bank of Madras, and the receipt given by the Treasury Officer or the Bank of Madras attached to the application, which must in every case reach the Commissioner's office on or before the 31st August. On no account will the fee be received in the Commissioner's office, whether sent in cash or by Post Office orders. No application will be registered unless it reaches the Commissioner's office by the date prescribed.

NOTE.—At Madras, in the case of all pupils, the fee should be collected by the Headmaster [illegible] in a lump sum to the Bank of Madras together with two lists of the pupils, one of which will be returned by the Bank and the other signed and returned to the Headmaster. This latter list should be forwarded to the office along with the applications of the candidates. The necessary forms for this purpose will be supplied by this office to Headmasters on application.

14. Each application should be sent direct to the undersigned, post-paid, superscribed and addressed as follows, the receipt for the fee paid being securely fastened to it.

☞ Candidates are warned that the application itself should not be enclosed with any drawings, plans, surveys, field books, estimates, or other 'certified works' that may be sent, but should be submitted in a separate cover.

[Application for admission to the Government Technical Examinations.]

To

The Secretary to the Commissioner for Government Examinations, Nungambakam, Cathedral P.O. (Madras).

N.B.—Candidates anxious to assure themselves that their applications have been received should enclose an addressed post-card in their respective applications. The post-card should bear the sender's address only and no other writing. Such post-cards will be returned to them in due course with the 'Received' stamp of the office impressed upon them. No other form of acknowledgment except that required by the Postal rules regarding registered letters can possibly be given nor will any notice be taken of any letter from any candidate inquiring whether his application has been received. Insufficiently stamped covers will be rejected.

15. Candidates should write their names, their fathers' names and their house names, distinctly and in full in their applications and give their addresses in full also; if 'Other Hindus', they should state in column 3 of their applications whether they are 'Non-Brahmin Caste Hindus' or 'Panchamas.' Applications which are irregular or defective in any particular will not be taken notice of.

NOTE.—The occupation or profession of candidates, or the appointments held by them should invariably be stated—in full—in column 10 of their applications.

16. The fee paid will, in no case whatsoever, be refunded, nor will it be reserved for a subsequent examination. Neither will any excess fee that may have been inadvertently paid be returned. Candidates are warned to study the notification carefully and satisfy themselves, before remitting their fees, that they fulfil the prescribed conditions of admission to the examination and that they can, if necessary proceed, at their own expense, beyond the limits of the examination centre selected by them, for the purpose of undergoing the Written or the Oral and Practical examinations.

17. Candidates for the Intermediate or Advanced examinations whose names have already been published in the Gazette as having passed a particular stage or stages in subjects in which the examination is divided into stages, so as having passed the Intermediate (late Preliminary) where the examination is of two grades—Intermediate and Advanced—must in their applications cite the date and page of the Gazette in which their names appear and their number in the list of successful candidates.

18. The examinations in the subjects under 'Drawing, etc.,' will be conducted in the order of time and subjects set forth in the following table. Candidates will not be allowed to come up in more than one of the subjects bracketed together for the same time on the same day in the table below, or for more than one grade of examination in the same subject in the same year.

The Standard Barometer and Thermometers are read at 6 a.m., 10 a.m., 4 p.m. and 8 p.m., and the daily means are obtained by the application of hourly corrections, deduced from twenty years' observations. The cistern of the barometer is twenty-two feet above the level of the sea, and the receiver of the rain-gauge is two feet from the ground. The wind, rain and general weather registered are for the current civil day—from midnight to midnight.

The total quantity of rain collected since 1st January is 10·97 inches, the average due for the same period being 11·50 inches.

Bill No. 11 of 1920.—A Bill to amend the Madras General Clauses Act, 1891, with Statement of Objects and Reasons 1279

Minutes of Dissent to the Report of the Select Committee on the Madras Elementary Education Bill 1281

Bill to be introduced into the Council of the Governor of Fort St. George for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations.

Under rule 33 of the rules for the conduct of business at meetings of the Council the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons, is published for general information.—

No. 11 of 1920.

A Bill to amend the Madras General Clauses Act, 1891.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Madras General Clauses Act, 1891, by defining the word 'India'; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

In section 3 of Madras General Clauses Act (1891), after clause (15), the following clause shall be inserted:—

"(15-A) 'India' shall mean British India, together with any territories of any Indian Prince or Chief under the suzerainty of His Majesty exercised through the Governor-General of India or through any Governor or other officer subordinate to the Governor-General of India."

This definition applies, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, to all Acts of the Governor in Council made after the 1st day of January 1892.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 45 of the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1920, extends franchise privileges to the 'subject of a State in India'; and similar privileges have been conferred by rules 3 (3) and 16 (h) of the rules under the Madras Local Boards Act, 1884, for the conduct of elections by members of taluk boards. The expression 'State in India' is also used in clause 8 (3) of the Madras Village Panchayat Bill, 1920.

2. In the absence of a statutory declaration of the exact meaning to be attached to the word India' the expression 'State in India' is capable of being construed as including the French Settlements in India. To avoid any doubt on this point it is proposed to include in the Madras General Clauses Act, 1891, a definition of the word 'India' similar to that which finds place in clause (27) of section 3 of the General Clauses Act, 1897, and at the same time to make it clear that the new definition has retrospective effect.

L. DAVIDSON.

Minutes of Dissent to the Report of the Select Committee on the Elementary Education Bill to be presented to the Council of the Governor of Fort St. George for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations.

I agree with the Select Committee's Report subject to the following note:—

In clause 3 of the Bill, elementary education can be defined more definitely. The intention of the framers of the Bill is to leave "What constitutes elementary education" to the authority which prescribes it. I think that it may be defined in the statute as in the United Provinces Act, i.e., "Elementary education means such instruction in reading, writing and arithmetic as may be prescribed for the time being for elementary schools by the Governor in Council and such instruction in other subjects, if any as may be determined by the Board with the approval of the prescribed authority."

Clause 3 (ix) may be omitted and the following substituted:—"Parent" includes a guardian or any person who has the actual custody of a child. If a full definition of the guardian is thought necessary, the definition of parent may be added.

It is also a question whether the definition of the "child" should be added in the statute itself or the fixing of the age is to be left to the local Government. I am for fixing the age in the statute itself at not less than 5 and not more than 12 years and to leave any variation in exceptional circumstances to the discretion of the Governor in Council.

The formation of District Educational Councils was voted for to be incorporated in the Bill by a majority in the Select Committee. If it is also approved by the Legislative Council I only hope that the existing powers of the local boards in the matter of finance and the management of all their elementary schools should not be curtailed. The activities of the District Educational Councils should be mainly confined to the shaping of the educational policy of the district as a whole regarding all elementary schools including non-board schools and also for the expansion of elementary education. All powers that have hitherto been exercised by the educational authority as to recognition and aid should form part of the duty of the District Council without prejudice to the existing rights and privileges of the local boards. The local boards further expect that there should be no diminution in the grants allotted to them but a more liberal financial policy should be adopted hereafter as the spending power of the boards (with no adequate funds) is yearly increasing in the case of the ever-expanding department of education.

Clause 5.—I am of opinion that Presidents of District Boards should be the ex-officio Chairman of the District Council. Like the Collector of the district, he has no interest in elementary schools as they are under taluk boards. Already in seventeen districts non-officials have been appointed as District Board presidents. After the expiry of the first term of the District Council, i.e., three years, the appointment of the Chairman may be left to election among the members. In this connexion I am of opinion that municipal areas should be excluded from the operation of the District Council as is the case in England and Wales. The municipal councils have more funds at their disposal and the local conditions are very much better as to introducing compulsion, etc., to that of rural area.

Chapter V.—I am of opinion that when compulsion is introduced in any area, education should be free. I agree with similar provisions contained in sections 3 and 13, United Provinces Act No. VII of 1919 and Bombay Act No. I of 1918. The Select Committee by a majority has agreed to it. I am however against the compensation clause introduced by the Select Committee in cases where free compulsory education is introduced. The compensation that may be required to pay to Mission schools will be about 6 lakhs and about 15 to 20 lakhs to other aided institutions. This will be a drain beyond the resources of the District Councils. It is only in the Central Provinces where education is backward a similar provision appears. In the Acts of Bombay, United Provinces, etc., such a provision does not appear. I am of opinion that it is the duty of the State to make education free. The grant alone under clause 37 is not enough which is moreover intended to expand primary education. I think the entire burden should be borne by the State.

Chapter VI, clauses 52 and 53 as amended.—The provisions are no doubt intended to arrange for agreements being entered into regarding exemption from religious instruction in private elementary schools. The object of the said clauses is arrived on a compromise basis between the two opposite ideals of the Conscience Clause. The difficulty arises not only in Missionary schools but also in other schools including the National schools. The Muhammadans, Christians, Jains, etc., like the Hindu boys will find similar difficulty; for, in a school where either Vedas, Varnashrama or Sanatana Dharma is taught, Muhammadans, Christians and other boys will not agree to attend the period when it is taught. If Bible is taught in a school all other boys except Christian boys will object to attend the period when it is taught. At present the boys attend such schools for the following among other weighty reasons such as the absence of schools or colleges within reasonable distance or that the boys are free scholars or that the attendance will please the teachers in whose hands the promotion up to the VI Form lies.

In England under section 14 of the Elementary Education Act of 1870 "No religious catechism or religious formulary which is distinctive of any particular denomination shall be taught in the school." I quite appreciate the reasons that may be offered by the Mission, National or any other Sectarian institutions. The said institutions impart religious education as they have implicit faith in such a course. They spend a lot of money out of their pockets. It must also be remembered that such institutions will seek and get aid from Government or the District Council. It should not be forgotten also that they are imparting education to some section of Indian boys and therefore deserve to be aided and their institutions recognized. Clause 52 as far as it goes would seem to be a compromise but 53 nullifies all the good that is intended by clause 52. The Manager has simply to refuse the proposed arrangements and not suffer any penalty for disobeying a compromise suggested by an important body like the District Council. If there was a provision to the effect that the Managers will receive only half the grant which they would otherwise get under section 42, it would be a safeguard. I suggested therefore in the Select Committee (the majority of which did not accept the suggestion) that the denominational schools should make it a rule to exempt and not to allow the boys to sit in the class when religious instruction is taught except when they obtain the consent of the guardian in writing.

N. SUBBA RAO.

I am opposed to the creation of ad hoc bodies known as 'District Educational Councils.' I think that these new powers may be entrusted to the district boards or statutory committees composed therefrom in rural areas and to municipal councils or statutory committees thereof in urban areas.

2. If these councils are to be retained at all, they should be authorized in all cases to elect their president from one of the members, and the election need not be subject to the approval of the Governor in Council.

3. The proposed contribution by the Government to the Education fund at a sum equal to the proceeds of taxation will work inequitably in the case of poorer local bodies. It should not be fixed on the rupee for rupee basis: but should depend on the needs of a district. There should be clear provision for supplementing the resources of the local bodies with reference to the needs of a locality.

The provisions relating to finance are not satisfactory. The Government should undertake to bear two-thirds or one-half of the additional expenditure involved.

4. The maximum of one anna in the rupee provided in clause 34, sub-clause (5), is excessive. It may be reduced to 6 pies in the rupee.

5. I would fix the distance limit of 'one' mile instead of two miles in clause 50, sub-clause (1).

6. I am strongly in favour of the introduction of a conscience clause in the Bill. If the manager of an elementary school refuses to enter into an agreement under clause 53, he should be disentitled to get any grant-in-aid from the Government or from a local body.
